TACTICAL[®] FOODPACK

True Food.

TACTICAL[®] FOODPACK

Outdoor restaurant experience to go with your adventures.

Anytime. Anywhere.

Tactical Foodpack is a freeze dried foods brand that focuses on the highest quality and best experience.

No preservatives.

No added sugar.

No compromises.

Inspired by real life

Tactical Foodpack was born to meet the actual needs of Special Forces Units soldiers for lightweight foodpacks with high energy and low demands for preparation conditions.

Driven by innovation

Continuous development of Tactical Foodpack meals has resulted in high calorie natural food with 8 years shelf life, versatile packaging and preparation methods. And of course, the most delicious outdoor food on the market.

Loved by everyone

Tactical Foodpack meals are highly valued by not only military, but also hikers, sailors, athletes, mountain climbers and even office workers around Europe. We are for everyone.

All new menu!

In October 2024 we launched our new, diverse menu and improved our best selling meals, adding even more flavor. More spaghetti, more sauce, more chicken and more delight!

We have several vegan meals!

Why choose Tactical Foodpack?

Long shelf life

Our food can be stored in almost any conditions for 8 years without losing any of its qualities.

Exquisite taste

Our meals offer a true outdoor restaurant experience. Don't compromise on your taste buds! Our food tastes the best and we are not shy to say so!

Nothing artificial

We don't use any artificial contents in our food. No preservatives, no added sugar, no food colouring or flavor enhancers. Only pure food.

Good calories

Our foods feature no added sugar. That means you will never experience "carb spike". Full tummy and good energy for hours!

Unique package

Developed specially for us, our resealable packages enable you to heat the food with hot water or directly on a small flame!

Almost weightless

Average Tactical meal weighs approximately 120 grams before preparation. This means around 500 grams of ready made food.
